SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

At 8:40 p.m. Placer County Sheriff's deputies responded to a report of a domestic assault with a possible gun shot having been fired at a location on Dry Creek Road in North Auburn.

Upon the deputies' arrival, they found a 61 year old female victim who had multiple blunt force type injuries to her head. The victim was transported to Roseville Sutter Hospital Trauma Center where she was treated and eventually released.

Arrested at the scene was Samuel Turvey, age 50, the victim's husband. Deputies recovered two handguns which were used during the course of the domestic disturbance. It is alleged that the suspect used one of the handguns to shoot out the locking mechanism of the door to their travel trailer residence after the victim had locked the suspect out for fear of her safety.

Sometime after that incident, it is alleged that the suspect attacked the victim inside the trailer, striking her with the butt of a second gun. Both guns were owned by the couple.

The suspect was booked at Placer County Jail where he is being held on $50,000 bail.
